

Shirley Haley, photographer, writer, experienced mountain hiker and backpacker, and professional music teacher, lives at Big Lake, Washington.

Shirley has publishing credits in: Augsburg, Simon Shuster, American Morgan, Sierra, Country, Chemical Engineering, Backpacker, The Learning Source, Christian Home & School, Decision, Marriage, On-the-Line, Pet Business, Morris Animal Foundation, International Reading Association, American Ostrich, Youth Law News, Pack & Paddle, Washington Northwest Trails, Stevens Pass Greenaway, Journal of Educational Publications, and more.

Shirley has shipped her framed prints to homes in Sweden, Florida, Maryland, Nova Scotia, Switzerland, China, California, Alaska, Ohio, and North Carolina. Several of her pictures are displayed at the University of Texas's President's home. She really enjoys living and photographing in the Pacific Northwest. Her photographs are displayed at her gallery in her home at Big Lake.

They are also displayed at the following: The Blue Heron Gallery in Coupeville, and Deception Pass Visitors Center which are all located on Whidbey Island. In Mount Vernon, the pictures are in the Resource Center, and Prime Lending office. They are also in Dr. Stanley Rosebrook's office in Arlington. Her note cards are in the Valley Pharmacy, Big Lake Grocery, Wild Bird Supply and Melody's Flower Shop in Burlington, and Prime Lending in Mount Vernon.

She is past president of the Skagit Art Association and a member of the Washington State Music Teachers Association, of which she a nationally and state certified teacher. She is also a charter member of NANPA-North America Nature Photography Association.

Telephone-360.422.6565

Email: topshots@wavecable.com

Website: www.fineprintcollection.com